

Introduction

English vocabulary is so dynamic that it keeps adding and changing to its reservoir from time to time. It is so vast that one cannot say one has learnt all the vocabulary in one's lifetime. Fortunately, the resources for learning English vocabulary are also very vast. Thanks to the technology that its resources are multiplied today.

Print media is one of the sources for developing English vocabulary. Especially and of course, ironically, Telugu dailies offer us a variety of English words, if one can concentrate.

Hence, the students of I year from BA and B.Com courses are advised to take up a STUDY PROJECT on "Reading Telugu Dailies and Improving English Vocabulary."

Objectives

- To encourage students to improve English vocabulary.
- To motivate them to copy down words from print media.
- To inculcate a spirit of reading in the students.
- To make them understand the variety of benefits from reading print media.
- And finally, to create interest in exploring for knowledge.

Cover pages & first pages from the data collection sheets in the project reports are pasted hereunder:
